A TEACHER forced a girl studying in class II to walk on her hands in the school campus in the hot sun at Swami Vivekanand Vidya Mandir in village Belgaon. The girl sustained serious injuries on both her hands and is reported to be in a state of trauma.

According to information, Namdeo Chipdey, resident of village Sawli in his complaint to the Section Officer Saunsar development block, stated that his daughter, Kritika studying in class II in Swami Vivekanand Vidya Mandir, had not completed her home work on October 10. The class teacher expressed annoyance and asked her to learn the work by heart. The girl could not respond to the questions which made the class teacher angry. He took her to school director Maroti Devrao Buley.

The school director thrashed the girl with cane and later asked her to walk on hand in the school campus in hot sun. The girl, fearing more punishment, walked on the hot floor. This caused serious injuries on her both hands and she is reportedly a state of trauma owing to barbaric treatment by the school director.
