Jail inmate dies under mysterious circumstances

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bhopal: An inmate, who was serving term for fraud, died under mysterious circumstances at district jail, Damoh, on Tuesday night.

Tularam Rajak, 42, son of Puran Lal, was sentenced to 5 years of imprisonment by a court in connection with fraud, said jail police.

Rajak was formerly employed at a bank where the crime was committed. On Tuesday night, he complained of pain and was taken to a hospital where doctors declared him dead, police said.

Sources said that kin have alleged that a fellow inmate had been harassing Rajak for quite some time. A magisterial probe has been initiated to probe the matter.
