

Free-Press
(21-03-2015)

Complainant brutally beaten at police station

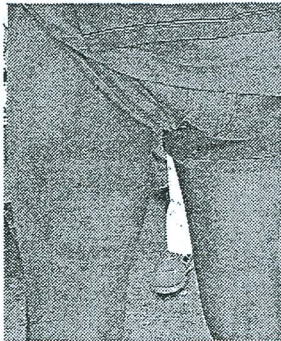

● FP NEWS SERVICE

Umaria

Husband of a complainant was beaten black and blue at Naurozabad police station on Friday. It is alleged that the police force was suppressing complainant's husband Phoolchand Rai of taking back a case connected to theft.

When Phoolchand did not take back the case, the policeman at the Thana beat him mercilessly.

Reacting on this Phoolchand Rai's wife Mithila Rai not only went to the media, but also to the Superintendent of Police to apprise them about the incident. Mithila Rai said, cash and jewellery and mobiles situated at ward number 8. Since Saurabh, son of Suresh Tiwari had entered their house; they on the basis of suspicion registered a complaint against on the complaint the police, called him up at the Thana and asked him to take back the case. They beat him mercilessly when he revolted and did not take the case

Phoolchand Rai showing off marks of being beaten by the policeman.

Mithila Rai, wife of complainant Phoolchand Rai.